

26th March, 1800.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a Committee of the whole House on Monday next.

A Bill

Making appropriation for the support of Government for the year 1800.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That for the expenditure of the civil list, including the contingent expences of the several departments and officers; for the compensation of clerks in the several loan offices, and for books and stationery for the same; for the payment of annuities and grants; for the support of the mint establishment; for the expences of intercourse with foreign nations; for the support of light houses, beacons, buoys, and public piers; and for satisfying certain miscellaneous claims, and expences; the following sums be and are hereby appropriated, that is to say:

No. 1. For the compensation granted by law to the President and Vice-President of the United States,

No. 2. For the like compensations granted to the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, their officers and attendants, estimated for a session of six months continuance,

No. 3. For the expence of fire-wood, stationary, printing, and all other contingent expences of the two Houses of Congress, including the sum stipulated to be paid in pursuance of a resolution of March 2d 1799, for supplying both Houses with the Journal of Congress,

No. 4. For the compensations granted by law to the chief justice, associate judges, district judges, and attorney general,

No. 5. For the compensations granted by law to the district attorneys, and for defraying the expense of clerks of courts, jurors and witnesses, in aid of the fund arising from fines, forfeitures, and penalties; and likewise for defraying the expenses of prosecution for offences against the United States, and for safe keeping of prisoners,

No. 6. For compensation to the Secretary of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 7. For expenses of stationery, printing, translating of foreign languages, allowance to persons employed in receiving and transmitting passports and sea-letters in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury,

No. 8. For compensation to the Comptroller of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 9. For expense of stationery, printing, and all other contingent expenses in the Comptroller's office,

No. 10. For compensation to the Auditor of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 11. For expense of stationery, printing, and all other contingent expenses in the office of the Auditor,

No. 12. For compensation to the Treasurer, clerks, and persons employed in his office,

No. 13. For expenses of fire-wood, stationery, printing, rent, and all other contingencies in the Treasurer's office,

No. 14. For compensation to the commissioner of the Revenue, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 15. For expense of stationary, printing, and all other contingent expenses in the office of the commissioner of the Revenue,

No. 16. For compensation to the Register of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 17. For expense of stationary, printing, and all other contingent expenses in the Register's office (including books for the public stocks and for the arrangement of the marine papers)

No. 18. For compensation to the Purveyor of Public Supplies, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 19. For fire-wood, stationary, office and store rent for the Purveyor,

No. 20. For compensation to the Secretary of the commissioners of the Sinking Fund,

No. 21. For the payment of rent for the several houses employed in the Treasury Department (except the Treasurer's office,)

No. 22. For the expense of fire-wood and candles in the several offices of the Treasury Department (except the Treasurer's office,)

No. 23. For defraying the expense incident to the stating and printing the public accounts for the year one thousand eight hundred, (including an increase of two hundred dollars in consequence of an extension of the Revenue and Expenditures,)

No. 24. For defraying the expense incident to the removal of the books and records of the Treasury Department from Philadelphia to Trenton, during part of the summer of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, including the extra expenses of the several officers, clerks and messengers in each office,

No. 25. For compensation to the several loan officers,

No. 26. For the expense incident to the removal of the Loan office of Pennsylvania, from Philadelphia, during part of the summer of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, including the extra expenses of the clerks in the said offices,

No. 27. For compensation to the clerks to the commissioners of Loans, and an allowance to certain loan-officers in lieu of clerk-hire, and to defray the authorized expenses of the several loan-offices,

No. 28. For compensation to the Secretary of State, clerks and persons employed in that department,

No. 29. For the incidental and contingent expenses in the said department,

No. 30. For the expenses incident to the removal of the department of state from Philadelphia, to Trenton, during part of the summer of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, including the extra expenses of the Secretary for the department, the clerks and messenger therein,

For compensation to the following officers of the Mint :

No. 31. The Director,

No. 32. The Treasurer,

No. 33. The Assayer,

No. 34. The Chief Coiner,

No. 35. The Melter and Refiner,

No. 36. The Engraver,

No. 37. One Clerk at

No. 38. And two at

No. 39. For the wages of persons employed at the different branches of melting, refining, coining, carpenters, mill-wrights, and smiths work

No. 40. Including the sum of per annum

allowed to an assistant coiner and die forger, who also oversees the execution of the iron work,

No. 41. For the purchase of ironmongery, lead, wood, coals, stationery, office furniture, and for all other contingencies of the establishment of the mint,

No. 42. For compensation to the secretary at war, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 43. For expenses of fire wood, stationery, printing, rent and other contingent expenses in the office of the secretary at war,

No. 44. For compensation to the accountant of the war department, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 45. For contingent expenses in the office of the accountant of the war department,

No. 47. For the expense incident to the removal of the war department from Philadelphia to Trenton, during part of the summer of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, including the extra expenses of the secretary for the department, the accountant, the paymaster general, the quarter-master general, the keeper of military stores, clerks and messengers in each office,

No. 48. For compensation to the secretary of the navy, clerks and persons employed in his office, including deficiencies in former appropriations for clerk hire,

No. 49. For the expense of fire wood, stationery, printing, rent, and other contingencies in the office of the secretary of the navy,

No. 50. For compensation to the accountant of the navy, clerks and persons employed in his office,

No. 51. For contingent expenses in the office of the accountant of the navy,

No. 52. For expense of removing the department of the navy from Philadelphia to Trenton, during part of the summer of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, including the extra expenses of the secretary for the department, the accountant, clerks and messengers in each office,

No. 53. For compensation to the surveyor-general,

No. 54. For compensation to the assistant surveyor, chain carriers, axe men and other persons employed, stationery and other contingent expenses in the surveyor-general's department (in addition to former appropriations,)

No. 55. For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the territory north-west of the river Ohio,

No. 56. For expenses of stationery, printing patents for land, office-rent and other contingent expenses in the said territory,

No. 57. For compensation to the governor, secretary and judges of the Mississippi Territory,

No. 58. For expenses of stationery, printing patents for land, office-rent, and other contingent expenses in the said territory,

No. 59. For compensation to the Post Master-General, assistant Post Master-General, clerks and persons employed in the Post Master-General's office,

No. 60. For expense of fire-wood, stationery, printing, rent, and other contingent expenses in the office of the Post Master-General, and for the expense incident to the removal of the General Post-Office from Philadelphia to Trenton during part of the summer of the year 1799—including the extra expenses of the Post Master-General his assistant and clerks; with expenses incurred by the post-master at Philadelphia by a removal of his office to a more healthy part of the city, and of his increased expenses in attending to the duties of his office in the years 1793, 1797, 1798 and 1799,

No. 61. For the discharge of such miscellaneous demands against the United States on account of the civil department, not otherwise provided for, as shall have been admitted in a due course of settlement at the Treasury, and which are of a nature according to the usage thereof to require payment in specie,

No. 62. For the payment of sundry pensions granted by the late government,

No. 63. For the maintenance and support of light houses, beacons buoys and public piers and stakeage of channels, bars and shoals, and for occasional improvement in the construction of lanterns and lamps, and materials used therein, and to make good deficiencies in former appropriations occasioned by the increased number of light-houses,

No. 64. For repairing Charleston light-house,

No. 65. For erecting a light-house on old point Comfort (in addition to former appropriations,

No. 66. For rebuilding, altering and improving the Light-House at New-London,

No. 67. For the payment of contracts entered into for building of a Light-House on Cape Hatteras, and a beacon on Shell Castle Island, (the balance of former appropriations being carried to the credit of the surplus fund)

No. 68. For the payment of balances which may be found due to individuals, in consequence of settlements at the Treasury, pursuant to the act of Congress, passed on the 12th June, 1798, entitled, "An act respecting Loan Office and Final Settlement certificates, &c.",

No. 69. For defraying the expenses of printing, with devices, the subscription certificates, and issuing the same to the subscribers to the loan of five millions of dollars, cost of paper ; also, the incidental expenses of said loan in its operation at the bank of the United States ; and likewise for printing certificates of the 8 per cent. stock, for the Treasury, and the several Loan Offices, including the cost of paper, and other incidental expenses of funding this stock,

No. 70. For the discharge of such miscellaneous demands against the United States, not otherwise provided for, as shall have been admitted in a due course of settlement at the Treasury, and which are of a nature according to the usage thereof, to require payment in specie,

No. 71. For the expenses of intercourse with foreign nations during the present year, in addition to the sum of forty thousand dollars appropriated by law for that purpose, the sum of

No. 75. For further expenses in carrying into effect the sixth article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation between the United States and Great Britain, including the expenses authorized by the act entitled " an act directing the appointment of agents in relation the sixth article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation between the United States and Great Britain",

No. 76. For the salaries of the commissioners under the seventh article of the said treaty, including the contingent expenses,

No. 77. For the salaries, clerk hire, office rent, and other contingencies of the two agents residing in England on business relative to the said seventh article,

No. 78. For further expenses in carrying into effect the Treaty of Amity, Navigation and limits between the United States and Spain,

No. 79. For the difference between the cost of the stipulated articles in the annuity to the Dey and Regency of Algiers and the permanent appropriation therefor

No. 81. For defraying the expenses incident to the valuation of lands and houses and enumeration of slaves within the United States as directed by the act of July 9th 1798, in addition to the sum appropriated by that act,

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several appropriations herein before made shall be paid and discharged out of the fund of six hundred thousand dollars reserved by the act “making provision for the debt of the United States” together with so much as may be necessary of the proceeds of the duties or imposts, and the tonnage of ships and vessels and the duties on domestic distilled spirits and stills, which shall accrue until the close of the present year.